

Information Event on Ways to Study Abroad

29th of March 2023, 11:30-13:00, G1 R218

In the event Ab ins Ausland, the THGA's International Office provides information about the various options to study abroad during your studies - from a semester abroad to summer school.

Which path is the right one for you? How do you have to prepare? Where can you go? And what are the benefits of staying abroad? The International Office Team will answer all of your questions! Snacks and Drinks will be provided. After our presentations, there will be an opportunity for further discussion. Participation is free of charge.
